

5/21/19

Architect / Job Captain

AVRP Skyport is seeking an Architect / Job Captain with the skills and experience listed below.

Licensed Architect or Job Captain who works under minimal supervision to plan and develop portions of medium to large scope projects with type I and/or V construction.

Duties and Responsibilities: Interpreting, organizing, executing, and coordinating assignments. Lead technical development of the project, translate design concepts into construction documents, coordinate consultant work effort, prepare zoning and code reviews, process permits with public agencies and assist with construction administration. Coordinate with consultants, engineers, and a small staff of technicians. May act in a team leader capacity in the absence of the manager. Must interact well with team members, clients and consultants.

Skills and Requirements:

Minimum of 10 years of related experience in Commercial projects.

Knowledge of building codes and experience with agency processing

Bachelor's degree in architecture from an accredited program plus 5-10 years of experience

California Architectural License and LEED AP preferred

Design Sensitivity

Advanced Proficiency with Revit required

Proficiency in AUTO CAD

Rendering software and plus, i.e. Lumion, Enscape, etc.

Excellent communication and collaboration skills

Ability to lead others

About AVRP Skyport

AVRP Skyport strives to find and develop an original idea that drives the creative process for each project. Principals Douglas H. Austin, FAIA; and Christopher T. Veum, Associate AIA, Frank Wolden; Randy Robbins, AIA, Brian Koshley, AIA, represent award-winning portfolios that have inspired developers and civic leaders to think beyond traditional boundaries to infuse each project with experiential community connections. Celebrating 43 years of creativity and accomplishment, the firm and its principals have earned over 150 design awards. For more information, visit www.avrpstudios.com.